

Oxyfuel Technician

Program Information

Student will learn the welding and joining technology skills necessary for careers in the welding industry. The courses taken will develop academic, technical and professional knowledge and skills required for job acquisition, retention, and advancement. The programs emphasize a combination of welding theory and practical application necessary for successful employment.

Program Requirements

To receive a certificate from Georgia Piedmont Tech, students must complete 50% of their course work at GPTC.

Courses		Credits Hours	Contact Hours
Occupational Courses (16 hours)
WLD100	Introduction to Welding Technology	6	8
WLD101	Oxyfuel Cutting	4	8
WLD102	Oxyfuel Welding	1	3
WLD154	Plasma Cutting	5	7

Credit Hours: 16

Contact Hours: 26