Students who have had previous Federal Direct Stafford loans discharged due to permanent/total disability must provide a statement acknowledging their ability to engage in substantial gainful activity before any new Federal Direct Student Loans can be awarded by the school they are attending. Please complete this form if you seek to borrow a new Federal Direct student loan and had federal loans that were previously discharged. In addition, you must also have a form completed by a physician that states you are able to engage in substantial gainful activity in order for this form to be considered valid.

The borrower acknowledges that:

- he/she has had previous Stafford loan(s) cancelled due to certification of permanent and total disability by his/her physician.
- he/she is now able to engage in substantial gainful activity.
- The attached certification from his/her physician states that the borrower is now able to engage in substantial gainful activity.
- The federal Direct Loan(s) he/she receives CANNOT be cancelled in the future on the basis of any impairment present when the new loan(s) is/are made, unless that impairment substantially deteriorates.
