GFA 1100 (non-credit) Introduction to On-Set Film Production

The Georgia Film Academy non-credit certification program is comprised of 18 credit hours specifically designed to provide students with a basic level of on-set film production skills, knowledge, and experience with film-industry standard organizational structure, professional equipment, and on-set procedures.

The first course, Introduction to On-Set Film Production, combines classroom instruction and hands-on experience with industry-standard equipment. The GFA also offers Specialty Craft Courses for advanced training in specialized crafts, like Set Construction & Scenic Painting, Post Production/AVID Editing, Lighting & Electric and Grip & Rigging. Even more specialty courses are in development for 2019-2020.

Eligible students may apply for the competitive GFA Film & Television Production Internship course where they learn and hone their craft while working on the crew of a professional production.

Frequently Asked Questions

What are Continuing Education courses?

Continuing Education courses are classes that help enrich your current knowledge of a particular subject matter or skill. They are usually short-term classes and can run anywhere from 1 day to a few months. These classes are considered non-credit classes as you do not receive a traditional grade of "A", "B", "C" etc. Instead, you receive a grade of Satisfactory or Unsatisfactory. When you complete a Continuing Education course, you will receive a Certificate of Course Completion. Some of our courses do lead to a Professional certification. If so, it will be noted on the course page.

Do I need to apply for admission into Georgia Piedmont Technical College to take a Continuing Education course?

 No. Continuing Education Courses are not for college credit, therefore formal admission is not required for our Continuing Education Courses.

How do I register for a Continuing Education Course?

- Submit your contact information on the non-credit registration request application to Continuing Education at ContEd@gptc.edu. Be sure to note the course that you are interested in by listing it on the application.
- You may also mail or hand deliver a non-credit registration request application to the Regional Transportation Training Center 6720 Marbut Road, Lithonia, Georgia 30058.

How can I pay for the course?

- Receipt of payment is the only way to confirm your seat in a course.
- We accept all credit/debit cards, checks, and money orders.
- Credit/debit card payments can also be accepted over the phone by calling 404-297-9522 ext. 1829.
- Checks and money orders must be delivered to the Regional Transportation Training Center 6720 Marbut Road, Lithonia, Georgia 30058.
- Registration deadline is one week prior to the start of the course.

Can I reserve my spot with a partial payment?

No, we will only accept full payments for our courses.

Can I pay for my Continuing Education class on the day it starts?

 No, all payments must be received by the payment deadline, which is one week prior to the start of the course.

Cancellations

Most classes have a minimum number of students that will ensure adequate enrollment; which is why we require registration at least one week prior to class. If enrollment is under the required number you will be notified of cancellation at least 3 days before class is to begin. You will be refunded in full.

Refunds

- 100% refunds are granted for "on campus" classes including one or two day seminars, provided a withdrawal is requested twenty-four hours before the first class is scheduled to begin. NO refunds after the first scheduled class day. Please submit your withdrawal request by email to Continuing Education at ContEd@gptc.edu
- Students registering and paying for Online Continuing Education Classes will be granted a 100% refund after notification is made to the Continuing Education Department before the 6th business day from class start date. Payments are refunded to the credit/debit account on record at the time of enrollment.
