GEORGIA PIEDMONT TECHNICAL COLLEGE OUR HERITAGE AND HISTORY

Now celebrating its 59th year, Georgia Piedmont Technical College was first established in 1961 as DeKalb Area Vocational School. With deep roots in the community, the College has grown substantially since enrolling its first class of 18 students. Georgia Piedmont is proud to serve thousands of students each year by providing technical education, adult education, continuing education, and business and industry training.

Georgia Piedmont Tech's footprint has likewise expanded. Academic Regalia

The caps and gowns worn by graduates and faculty are based on costumes used in British universities of the 14th and 15th centuries.

Georgia Piedmont Technical College graduates wear blue academic gowns and mortarboards. Honor graduates (GPA 3.7 or higher) are recognized with a gold tassel. Graduates who are members of nationally recognized honor societies may wear distinguishing stoles.

Most academic gowns of the faculty and staff are black; associate, bachelors and masters' gowns have no trimming on them. Doctoral gowns are trimmed in black or colored velvet. The color of the hood worn around the neck and down the back identifies the faculty or staff member's area of degree and institution. The hood is edged with velvet or a color that indicates the subject area of the degree received and is lined with silk of the colors of the institution that granted the degree.

For the academic purpose of edging academic hoods, these colors identify the subject in which the degree was awarded:

Accounting	Drab	Music	Pink
Agriculture	Maize	Nursing	Apricot
Arts, Letters, Humanities	White	Oratory (Speech)	Silver Gray
Dentistry	Lilac	Pharmacy	Olive Green
Economics	Copper	Philosophy	Dark Blue
Education	Light Blue	Physical Education	Sage Green
Engineering	Orange	Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Fine Arts (Architecture)	Brown	Public Health	Salmon Pink
Forestry	Russet	Science	Golden Yellow
Journalism	Crimson	Social Work	Citron
Law	Purple	Theology	Scarlet
Library Science	Lemon	Veterinary Science	Gray
Medicine	Green

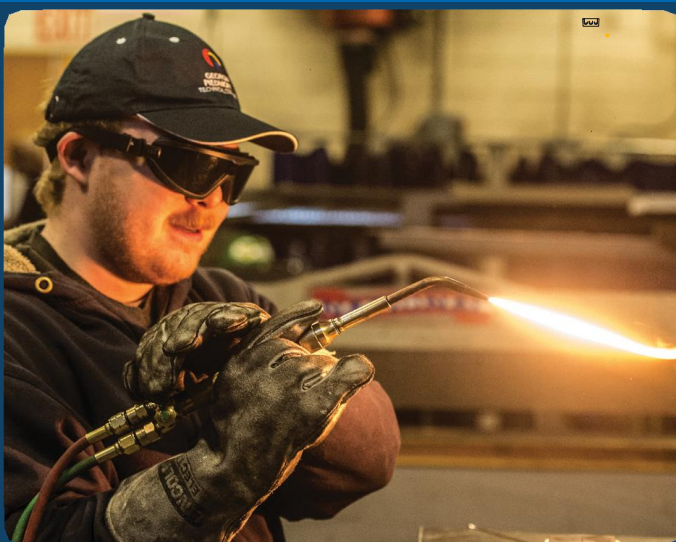

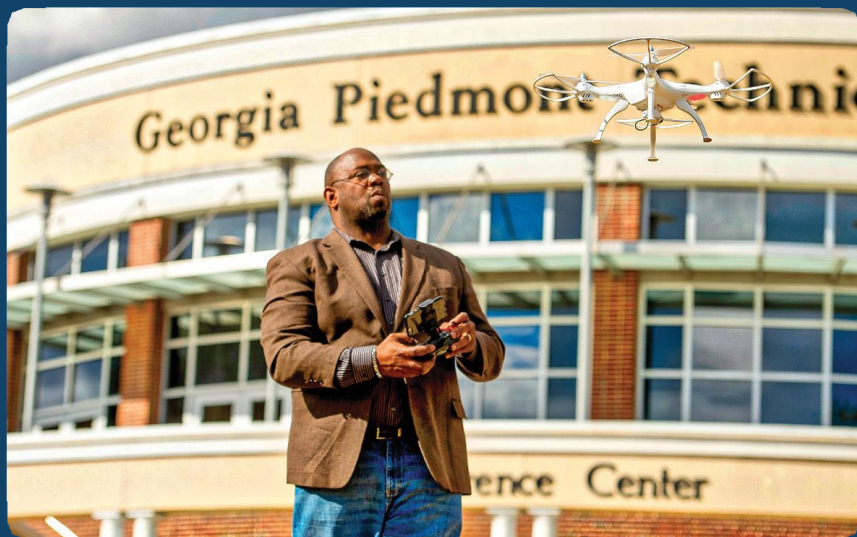

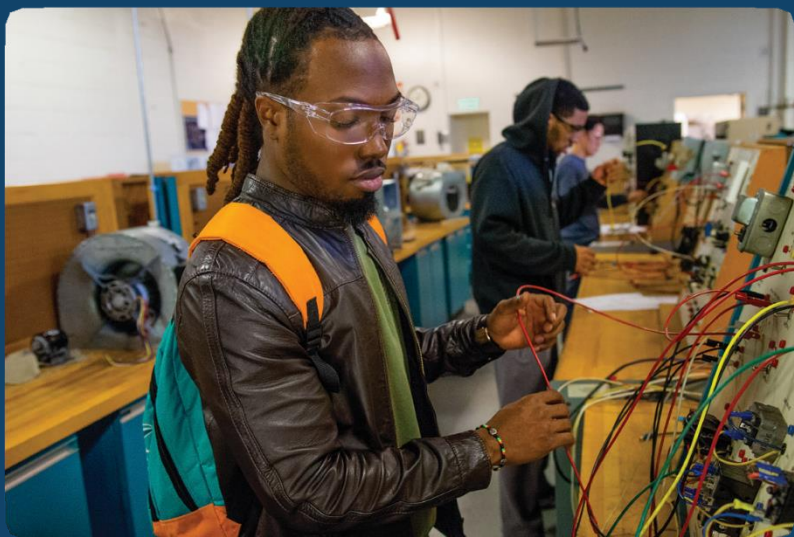

Gonfalon

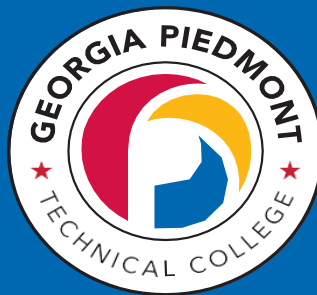

Another Medieval trapping that is still part of the modern educational tradition is the gonfalon, a type of banner. The gonfalon is a standard, and in Italian, the "gonfalonier" is the "standard bearer." Gonfalons are attached to a cross-bar rather than being directly fastened to a pole. Georgia Piedmont Technical College uses eight ceremonial gonfalons: Arts and Sciences; Business and Computer Information Systems; Health and Professional Services; Industrial Technologies; Education and New Media; Public Safety and Legal Services; Adult Education; and the College Seal. The respective gonfalon is carried at the head of each school's processional column.

The Mace

The mace has its roots in the Roman Empire. Often carried before the consul, maces were also carried in processions before various civil authorities, adorned with laurel on festive occasions, and draped in cloth for mourning. The first speaker of the U.S. House of Representatives, Frederick Muhlenburg of Pennsylvania, approved a mace as the symbol of his office in 1789. The mace is now one of the nation's most treasured artifacts. Each day, the sergeant at arms carries the mace into the House chamber and places it on a pedestal. The mace is also used during U.S. Presidential inaugurations. The sergeant at arms, carrying the mace, leads a procession of the members of the House of Representatives and stands behind them holding the mace throughout the inauguration ceremony.

The academic mace symbolizes the authority invested in the president by a school's governing body. When the authority is present, the mace is present. The Georgia Piedmont Technical College mace was commissioned by the College, stands 56 inches tall, is made of cherry wood and is adorned with a brass flame and four 3 inch bronze replicas of the Georgia Piedmont Presidential Seal. In formal College ceremonies, it is carried by the Rick Perkins Instructor of the Year.

As set forth in its student catalog, Georgia Piedmont Technical College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, sex, religion, disability, age, political affiliation or belief, genetic information, veteran status, or citizenship status (except in those special circumstances permitted or mandated by law).
